1 Accessing the Tech Zone Environment

1.1 Reserve the Environment in the IBM Tech Zone

Item	Description
0	Navigate to IBM Tech Zone Collection
1	In the side menu, click on " Environments "
2	See which spaces are available and click the button to reserve them.
3	Follow the instructions to create a reservation
4	After submitting your request, you will receive an email with the status of your environment. Wait for the notification that your environment is Ready .

1.2 Windows 11 – User IDs and Passwords

User: techzone
Password: IBMDemOs!

2 Workaround: Podman containers are not running!

We identified that a WSL v3.0.1 update on September 29th impacted the execution of Podman containers. After several attempts, we found a workaround and rolled back the WSL version. So, if you encounter this issue, please run this script:

1. Open PowerShell as an administrator.
2. You can run the commands all at once:

```
Stop-Service -Name "wuauserv" -Force; Set-Service -Name "wuauserv" - StartupType Disabled
wsl --version
Stop-Process -Name "Podman Desktop" -Force
winget uninstall --id Microsoft.WSL --source winget --exact winget install --id Microsoft.WSL --version 2.5.10 --source winget -- exact
wsl --version $configPath = "$env:APPDATA\containers\containers.conf.d\99-firewall.conf"
Set-Content -Path $configPath -Value "[network]`nfirewall_driver =`nnone`n"
podman machine stop
podman machine start podman start -all $pause = (Get-Date).AddDays(35); $pause =
$pause.ToUniversalTime().ToString( "yyyy-MM-ddTHH:mm:ssZ" ); Set-ItemProperty -Path
'HKLM:\SOFTWARE\Microsoft\WindowsUpdate\UX\Settings' -Name
'PauseUpdatesExpiryTime' -Value $pause

3. Next, open Podman Desktop, and the containers should be running.

3 About the environment

This environment was built based on the official product documentation, so be sure to check it out for more information about the new BAMOE Version 9.5.x

We will be updating this environment with new materials and resources as often as possible.

We aim to consolidate all BAMOE applications and other components running in Podman containers.

For this reason, I recommend opening Podman Desktop (the icon located on the desktop) and checking:

1. In the Podman settings, ensure that the Podman Machine is "RUNNING".

2. With Podman Machine running, select and run all containers

In addition to containers, you can use Ollama to test BAMOE's AI capabilities. To do so, run it by clicking the executable on your desktop

3.1 How do I access the applications?

Use the Google Chrome browser to access the applications, we have already saved the URL and access details for each one in the Bookmarks List:
